

Agreement for Academic Exchanges and Cooperation between
The Japan Association for Language Policy and
The Korean Association for Language Studies

The Japan Association for Language Policy (JALP) and The Korean Association for Language Studies (KALS), hereinafter referred to as “the two parties”, for the purpose of furthering cooperation in academic research hereby affirm their intent to establish collaborative opportunities.

Section 1: Purpose of the Agreement

The two parties shall encourage mutual understanding, collaborative research and related fields for further academic development.

Section 2: Scope of Cooperation

The two parties agree to cooperate as follows.

- (1) Exchange of members
- (2) Exchange of scholarly information
- (3) Collaboration on research
- (4) Joint academic meetings
- (5) Other activities as may be mutually agreed by the two parties to this Agreement

Section 3: Matters for negotiation

The form of cooperation, terms and conditions for the use of results obtained from collaborative research shall be determined by means of discussions/negotiation between the two parties in each occasion. Any questions as to interpretation of this Agreement shall be resolved by consultation between the parties in good faith.

Section 4: Regular discussion

Details of the aforementioned activities in Section 2 shall be determined by means of discussions/negotiation between the two parties for ensuring smooth implementation of the activities and strengthening cooperation.

Section 5: Duration of the Agreement

This Agreement shall become effective immediately upon being signed by the representatives of the two parties and shall remain valid for a period of five years. This Agreement shall be renewed annually thereafter by mutual agreement.

Section 6: Amendment of this Agreement

This Agreement may be amended by mutual agreement.

As a proof, this Agreement is made in English in two copies, signed by both representatives, one for each party.
